

Saukar drops the hot dance song "Work it"

Another release from this Grand Rapids, MI Hip-Hop artists that will be sure to get the people on the dance floor!

DAYTON, OH, US, March 26, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Infusing 90s dance with modern afrobeat, 'Work It' is the latest release from Saukar, which was composed, mixed, produced, engineered, and mastered by the multi-talented artist.

Inspired by Miami bass music, 'Work It' is a fun track that features fun dance lyrics, as well as infectious percussion loops.

"Most of my music is deep, inspirational & hardcore. This delves from my usual platform to let loose and have fun", Saukar says regarding his latest release.

Born and raised in Grand Rapids, Michigan, Saukar is a self-taught musician with over 20 years of experience in the music industry. At just nine years of age he began playing the guitar and piano, before developing a love for Hip Hop music, and soon after he was writing his own songs.

In 2002, Saukar built his own music studio, helping other artists to create Jazz, R&B, and Hip-Hop records, while working with organizations such as New Breed Entertainment, and Northstar MCs. He has copyrighted over 1,500 songs, and owns his own record label and publishing company under Heatholders Music Association.

Influenced by artists such as Anita Baker, Stevie Wonder, Outkast, and 2-Pac, he works tirelessly to create music his fans love, and aims to evoke happiness with his songs.
